Racked And Ready

Innovative Austrian designer Philipp Bruni has collaborated with the historic Augarten porcelain manufactory in Vienna to create the witty Pinocchio Billiard vase collection. The neck of the vase is inspired by the long, thin nose of folklore puppet Pinocchio. The bright base, modelled after billiard balls, lends the collection a playful cheeriness. Established as a porcelain house in 1718 and taken under imperial ownership by Habsburg Empress Maria Theresa in 1744, Augarten is a stalwart of exquisite Austrian design. Pinocchio Billiard vase
